

I am strongly in favor of limiting wideband communications to frequencies above 1843KHz on the 160 meter amateur band. CW is still a very important mode of communications to many of us hams.
K1ZDI